

The Circle of Life

$\text{♩} = 120$  Swing

The cir-cle of life, the cir-cle of life, I am a part of the cir-cle of life! The cir-cle of life, the cir-cle of life, I am in the cir-cle and the cir-cle's in me, I am part of the dance, of the great big hal - le - lu - jah!

That's it! Dance with abandon!

This is a zipper song, so try replacing the "I" language with "you", "we", the names of people in your circle, etc. And try it as a circle dance:

The circle of life, the circle of life (with joined hands, circle to the right)
 I am a part of the circle of life (circle to the left)
 The circle of life, the circle of life (circle to the right)
 I am in the circle (still with joined hands, come into the centre of the circle) and the circle's in me (step backwards, widening the circle again)
 I am part of the dance (come into the centre again)
 of the great big hallelujah! (lift each other's hands high, then throw your arms up in a great big hallelujah)

If you wish, put the people you are singing about in the centre of the circle and sing to them. Between verses, dance with abandon, returning to join hands in the circle as the next verse begins, with the next person in the centre.
